We, the undersigned, agree to follow the established group norms and expectations, as well as the Group Conflict Guidelines set forth by Quantic. Our group has established the following norms and expectations: Our group will be primarily communicating over [Slack/Discord/Microsoft Teams] (Please specify one), and have agreed that all members of the group will check for communications every 8 hours. If a group member does not respond within 24 hours, then the group will attempt a secondary outreach via email or phone call, and if no response is received, the remaining team members will proceed with the immediate tasks to prevent blocking project progress and notify the instructor. Our group will share work via GitHub and update team members accordingly when tasks are completed. Core Expectations for Project Delivery Commitment to Roles: Each member (Ha Vu: Code Refactoring; Mihai: DDD Modeling; Hesham: Architectural

Our group will be primarily communicating over Microsoft Team, and have agreed that all members of the group will check for communications every 12 hours. If a group member does not respond within 12 hours, then the group will attempt a secondary outreach via email. Our group will share work via GitHub and update team members accordingly when tasks are completed.

By submitting this agreement, we understand that as a group we're all responsible for following the guidelines established herein. We have read the Quantic Code of Conduct and understand all submissions will be monitored for plagiarism. If a situation warrants intervention, then we will take accountability measures to ensure success for the entire group. We understand that once a project has been submitted with the group members' names included, group member participation and credit cannot be disputed after the fact.
